

VISION

The vision is to be a center of professional excellence committed to development of competence in teaching and research.

MISSION

The mission of the Department is to achieve excellence by conducting effective teaching, research and consultancy in the areas of pedagogy, educational technology and early childhood Education.

CORE VALUES

The Core values of the Department are:

- Commitment to high quality teaching informed by research and consultancy
- Dedication to the attainment of excellence
- Upholding of the ethics and etiquette of teaching, research and consultancy.
- Impartiality in assessment and evaluation of performance.
- Interaction with all stakeholders.